PLUSSM HIRES LORI SUGIMURA AS CLIENT RELATIONS MANAGER

MINNEAPOLIS, June 30, 2008 – Plus Relocation Services, Inc. (PLUSSM), a global leader in the employee relocation industry, today announced the hiring of Lori Sugimura as a client relations manager. Sugimura will be responsible for facilitating client communications and collaborating with clients to develop strategic solutions, as well as leading new client implementations.

Sugimura joins PLUS with eight years experience in real estate and relocation. Her broad range of relocation experience includes positions as a relocation counselor, home marketing specialist, operations specialist, manager of relocation services, and director of client services. Sugimura's insight is enhanced by her background as a real estate agent.

"We are excited to welcome Lori as a part of our client relations team. Her diverse relocation background makes her a great asset to our organization," said Susan Schneider, president. "She has a strong history of implementing strategic cost saving initiatives while optimizing service delivery levels for a wide variety of clients, including many Fortune 500 companies."

Sugimura's industry involvement includes membership and active participation in the Minnesota Employee Relocation Council (MERC), where she is a member of the Community Cares committee. She holds Worldwide ERC®'s Certified Relocation Professional (CRP) designation, and is also a licensed real estate agent.
